

Add 200 to Membership.
With a house-to-house canvass, the Highland Park Citizens' Association has brought its membership up to the 500 mark. The canvass was made on Friday night, after which it was sent to every resident of Highland Park, calling attention to the importance of the association. The committee rounded up 200 new members. The association will hold a rally to-morrow night in the Highland Park school auditorium. The various committees will report. Refreshments will be served and a prominent speaker will make an address. All Highland Park residents are invited.
